

Citrus Watercolor Club
General membership Meeting
August 13, 2010

Meeting Called to Order

The August 13, 2010 meeting of the Citrus Watercolor Club was called to order by President Kim Shields at 1:00 P.M. at the First United Methodist Church of Inverness.

Announcements:

Kim announced that Bill Slinger and German Boettcher were accepted by the Florida Watercolor Society for the 2010 show. He announced the deaths of two founding members Joe Bucciante and Bud Fitch and expressed the club's gratitude for the family's donation of art supplies and art books. Kim also thanked Tom Jones for his donation of a CD, The Yellowstone Experience.

Minutes:

Virginia Neal moved the minutes of the June meeting be accepted as presented. Dee Witt seconded the motion which passed. (Copies of minutes were e-mailed with hard copies placed in the back of the room.)

Secretary Lane Vick passed around a sign-up sheet for members to designate if they wanted minutes e-mailed to them and if they were willing to have their names and addresses given to art supply vendors.

Treasurer's Report:

Treasurer Lou Friedman presented the financial report with receipts of $2,073.65, expenditures of $996.67 and an ending balance of $7,620.82.

Corresponding Secretary:

Susie Von Ammon, Corresponding Secretary, said sympathy cards were sent to the families of Joe Bucciante and Bud Fitch. Eight other members received cards for illness, etc. She also asked for cards created by members.

Membership:

2nd Vice-President Rhonda Hancock announced we had four new members, nine visitors, and forty-six members present. Rhonda also distributed fliers for the Brooksville City Hall Art Gallery giving the fall slate of scheduled events and activities.

Programs:

Glenda Ackley, 1st Vice-President, said we need hosts or hostesses for some of the workshops.

Demonstrator/Presentation:

Glenda introduced owners of Grafitos of Ocala who presented examples of fine art reproductions. They discussed the process of reproducing art work as giclees and lithographs on a variety of materials.

Respectfully submitted,

Lane Vick
Secretary